ADDITIONAL MATERIAL (Prayers, Poems, Quotes & Liturgies)

*O Heavenly Comforter, Spirit of truth, present in all places and filling all things;
Treasury of blessings and Giver of life: come and dwell in us, cleanse us from every impurity, and of Your goodness, save our souls. Amen.*

-- ROMANIAN ORTHODOX PRAYER

+ + +

God sends his Spirit to us in just as many ways as there are people.

-- HENRI J. M. NOUWEN (1932 – 1996)

*Effortlessly, Love flows from God into man, like a bird who rivers the air
without moving her wings.
Thus we move in His world,
one in body and soul,
though outwardly separate in form.
As the Source strikes the note, humanity sings—
The Holy Spirit is our harpist, and all strings which are touched in love must sound.*

-- MECHTHILD OF MAGDEBURG (c. 1207 – 1282)

GATHERING PRAYER

(1 Corinthians 12)

Weaving God, as the body of Christ, we gather. Wonderfully and uniquely made by you, we bring our gifts. Living out loud and in diversity we knit together our callings.

Encourage us as we spread your hope and grace in our world. Empower us to speak the truth in love, listen with clarity, reach out in compassion, act with wisdom, and invite the Spirit to guide us.

Trusting that though we are many, we are one faith family nestled in your care. Though we are different, we are united in your love. Embracing equity and building community, we lean into you this morning and hold silence as we open our minds, our hearts, and our hands. We pause to breathe in your breath and breathe out your love.

(Hold Silence)

In the power and freedom of the resurrected Christ we pray, Amen.

RESPONSIVE LITURGY

(Inspired by John 7:37-39)

Leader: Jesus said, Let anyone who is thirsty come to me.

People: Recent days have been drought-filled with physical distancing.
We come, yearning to quench the thirst of isolation.

Leader: Trust that the streaming living water flows as the dancing Spirit draws near.

People: As the waters of hope replenish us, the Spirit of understanding fills us.

Leader: Together we experience the healing grace of love.

People: Let us journey forward in strength and faith.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION with ASSURANCE

Forgiving One, at times we have looked inward and engaged our ego-driven desires. Rather than resting in the abundance of your love, we have practiced the illusion of control. Sometimes we have forgotten how to sing songs of praise, and have chosen to speak in pride. This day we seek not only grace for our behaviors, but ask for courage to change. Help us leave any prejudice, ism, or phobia in our past. Tutor us in ways to walk gently with one another and on our earth. We pray to live as Jesus taught. Allow your spirit to flow in and about teaching us how to understand ourselves and engage the wider world.

In mercy we pray.

Leader: With love and grace abounding, God forgives.

People: This day is new! Amen.

BENEDICTION

(Inspired by Acts 2)

We are called to hear the rush of the wind that reminds us that the universe is bigger than the lens through which we see our immediate world. From republicans to democrats, gay to straight, young to old, females to males, people to people, we are entrusted to prophesy, see visions, and dream dreams. Go forth in the Spirit of compassion, wholeness, grace, and love. Go forth to be the people we know we can be! Amen.

Thanks to Ginger Brasher-Cunningham for contributions to this week's prayers and liturgies.
